WELFARE OF THE FARMER IS HOLDING ATTENTION OF BOTH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

By The Associated Press

The welfare of the U. S. farmer—and how he votes in November—appeared to hold the attention of both presidential candidates and their parties today.

President Eisenhower arranged an early appointment for Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), obviously a preliminary to the President's scheduled appearance Friday at the National Field Days and Flowing Contest at Newton, Iowa.

His Democratic opponent Adlai Stevenson scheduled an afternoon news conference in Washington, with farm topics likely to arise. Stevenson is booked to speak at the Iowa celebration the day after Eisenhower's appearance.

Stevenson's running mate Sen. Estes Kefauver headed today for

Order Bans 4 Negro Pupils From Classes

Clay, Ky. (AP)—Four Negro pupils gave up their right to enter Clay Consolidated School today after being informed officially of a school board order denying them admittance.

After the Negroes left, approximately 150 white children returned to class.

The Negroes, escorted here by Adj. J. J. B. Williams, heard the order read on the steps by the school principal, Mrs. Irene Powell. Three of the four Negroes attended classes last week at Clay, which was boycotted by the 590 white students.

Mrs. Powell told the Gordon children, James, 10, and Theresa, 8; and the Copeland brothers, Bobbie Carl, 12, and Samuel Lee, 14; that the Webster County Board of Education had barred them from entering. The board acted Friday night after the attorney general's office issued an opinion stating the children were illegally enrolled.

After the order was read, Mrs. (Turn to Page Seven)

JC Music Committee Calls Public Meeting

The Jaycee Music Committee has issued invitations to 35 local citizens who are interested in retaining the Warren Concert Series which has been operating for the past nine years. The civic minded individuals have been asked to a meeting next Monday night, September 24 at 8 p.m. in the Jaycee meeting room at the Y.M.C.A.

The committee last week revealed that only 400 memberships had been sold to the 1956-57 series even though Beatty Auditorium holds 700 persons. Although three outstanding artists have been engaged for this season, the committee indicated it could not operate the following year without a larger membership.

The citizens committee meeting with the Jaycee Music Committee will discuss whether or not to hold another membership campaign this fall in an effort to sell out the house and put the series back on its financial feet.

Fourteen Vehicles Damaged In Series of Weekend Crashes

Fourteen cars wrapped around Pa. State troopers estimated damages at $1,025.

Later Saturday on Route 59, just above the Marconi Outing Club, John L. Leathers, 25, of Johnsburg, slowed to make a right turn when another northbound car, driven by George Warr, 33, Corydon Star Route, piled into the rear. The mishap occurred at about 5:15 p.m. Troopers estimated damage at $500. Druk driving charges were preferred against Mr. Warr.

Damage estimated at approximately $250 was incurred at 12:30 a.m. Sunday on Route 27 six miles north of Youngsville. Troopers said a machine operated by Elmer E. Peterson, 42, of 563 Crescent Park, swerved out of control on a curve and ploughed into an embankment.

Other two drivers in the rammed cars were Donald K. Bennett, 35, of Corydon, and Melvin L. Singer, 35, of 87 Jamison Street, Hingham.

Nine Tonight Deadline to Qualify for Ballot

Nine o'clock tonight is the deadline. That's when the registration office at Warren County Court House will close to those who wish to sign up for the November elections.

A total of 93 persons signed up Saturday to accumulate these totals: 12,621 Republicans, 5,631 Democrats, 325 non-partisans, 140 Prohibitionists, 3 Socialists.

Total registration figure in county is now 18,720.

OVER THIRTY ARE LOST IN SEA TRAGEDY

Bodoe, Norway (AP)—The body of a second man killed in the sinking of the American freighter Pelagia was pulled today from the icy sea off Norway. All the ship's 37 crewmen except five men plucked yesterday from a bobbing lifeboat were believed dead.

The lifeboat also contained the body of a steward who died of exposure. An air-sea search for survivors went on despite vanishing hopes.

A low-flying search plane sighted the second body drifting among the debris and oil slick where the Pelagia sank in a raging storm Saturday night.

The Norwegian destroyer Trondheim sped to the scene and retrieved the body. It was not identified immediately.

Three planes and a score of ships and fishing boats searched the area of the shipwreck, off Norway's northwest coast. There was a slight chance that survivors could have been washed ashore on one of the hundreds of rock islands that dot the area.

Close scrutiny of the islands was made hazardous by gusty winds and huge ocean swells. A leaden sky and frequent rain squalls lowered visibility. The air temperature in the search area hovered around 45 degrees.

The American Embassy at Oslo ordered Vice Consul Michael Newling to fly to Harstad—where the five survivors were brought—to provide for medical aid, clothing and other necessities.

The survivors said they last saw their shipmates on the deck of the sinking freighter. They said the ice smashed the ship's three other lifeboats and that they were afraid the others were unable to get away.

The Pelagia, a World War II Liberty ship loaded with 10,000 tons of iron ore, was bound from Narvik for Baltimore. Most of the crew were Americans. The captain, John Matandinos of Houston, Tex., was born in Greece.

Archers From Area Are Winners at Titusville

Members of Warren Archery Club attended the Northwestern Conference shoot held at Titusville Sunday and came home with six medals out of the several given.

Two of Warren's expert marksmen took top honors for the day with their precision shooting: Bob Jackson, with an 828, took first for the day and Bud Meyers, second for the day with a 751.

Cletus Remmy took second in expert free style, with a 724; Sherry Adams third, with 522.

Charles Prigent took first in novice class with a 297; Jamie Jetter placed first in the women's division with 378.

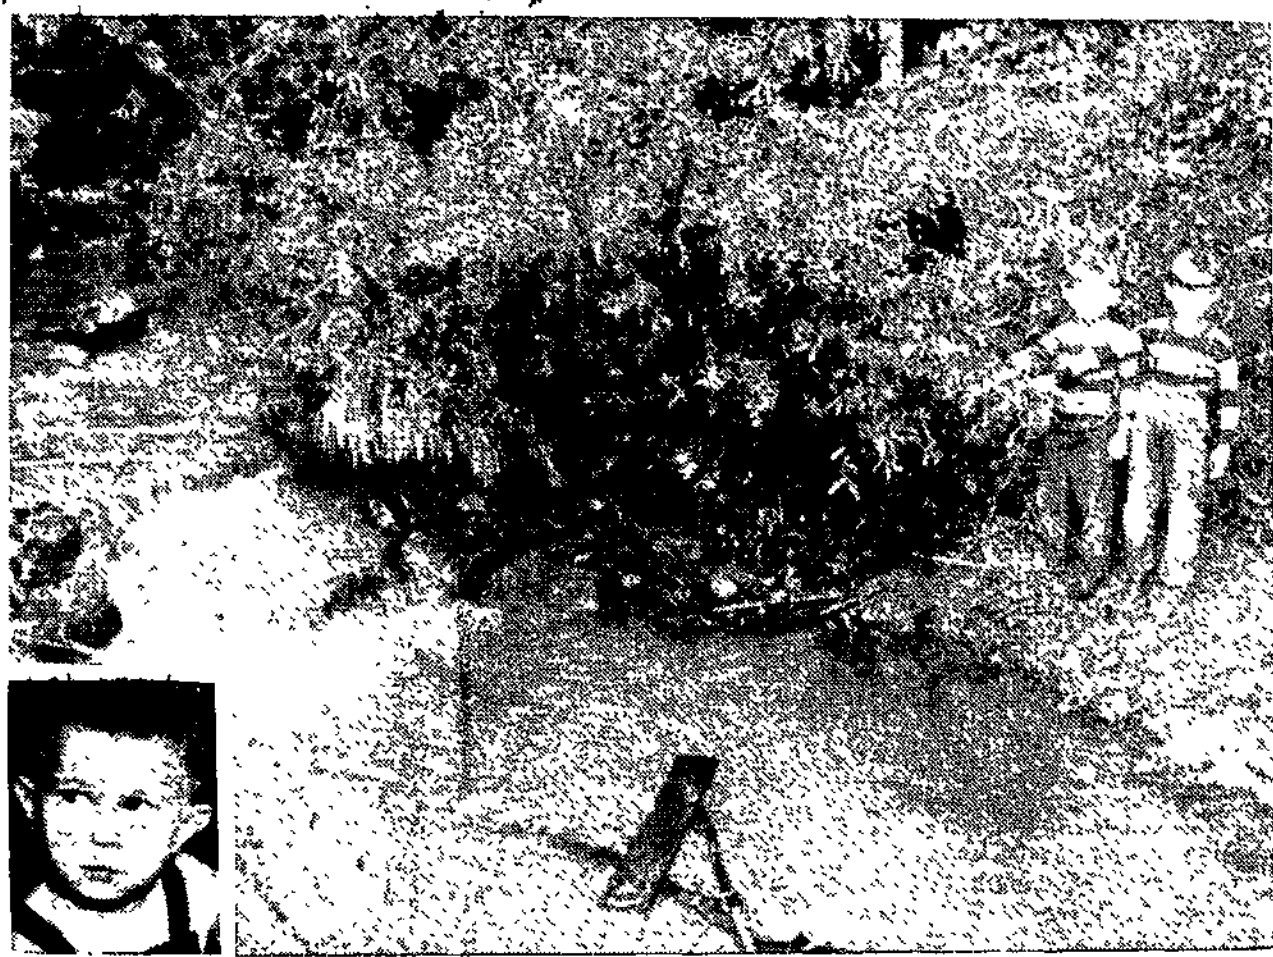

Warren Racer Winner of Cup in Grand Prix

Driving an Austin-Healy 100M sport car Saturday afternoon, Rockwell "Rocky" Shiel copped himself a huge gold cup and second place honors in the Class D race at the Ninth Annual Grand Prix Race at Watkins Glen.

Averaging 60.1 miles an hour around the dangerous 2.3-mile course, young Shiel second-bested a field of about 15 in his fourth competitive race. In the pit with Shiel was crew chief Sidney Blackman.

Rocky is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shiel, 200 Wiloughby avenue.

Two Held in County Jail Charged With Thefts From Lease

Titusville—Climaxing more than a week of intensive investigation, officers Saturday arrested two district men on charges of larceny of at least $200 in equipment from a Southwest Township oil lease.

The pair were committed to the Warren County jail in lieu of $750 bond each. One of the suspects, Perry Nelson of Spartansburg, RD 3, pleaded innocent to the charge at his arraignment Saturday afternoon before Justice of the Peace R. H. Williams of Titusville, RD 2.

The other man pleaded guilty to stealing equipment from the Penn-Bayless Gas & Oil Co. lease at Grand Valley, RD 1 (near Pineville). For investigative reasons, police asked that his name be withheld from publication until his hearing later this week.

The unnamed suspect admitted burglarizing the Bayless lease on four different occasions, authorities said. He confessed taking pipe fittings, a motor and other metal equipment which were sold as scrap.

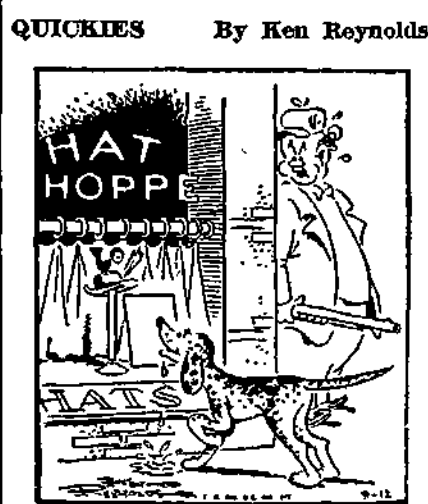

The pair were arrested in Titusville by Warren County Sheriff L. E. Linder, Deputy Don Allen Jr., Constable Manfred Vroman of Southwest Township and his special deputy, Blaine Luke.

The unnamed man, who was arrested at his home, pointed out Nelson for officers in a downtown Titusville bar. When Constable Vroman brought him outside to arrest him, the man put up a struggle and had to be forced into a car, the constable said. (Local police received a report that someone was forced into a car and it turned out to be the Nelson arrest.)

Constable Vroman and Special Deputy Luke had been investigating the suspects for at least ten days prior to their arrest.

Stanley Bayless of the oil firm, who signed information for the warrants, first reported thefts from the lease on Aug. 29.

Some of the equipment has been located by officers in two district scrap yards.

"... I'll bet the next bird dog I get in the Times-Mirror Want Ads... won't be a female!"

A stream which ordinarily is just a trickle during late summer months, claimed the life Saturday afternoon of a boy who was out playing with his friends.

Found floating face down in muddy, rain-swollen Dutch Run was five-year-old Howard Matha, son of Mrs. Mildred Matha Filiger, Jackson Run Road.

Parents first became aware of the tragedy when the victim's young brothers came hurrying to the house and said, "Howie's in the water. He won't talk to us."

The step-father, Merle Filiger, raced to nearby Dutch Run, plunged in with his clothes on to pull the boy out. While North Warren Volunteer Fire Department was being summoned the father applied artificial respiration to no avail. It was believed the young lad had fallen in the stream some moments before his frightened brother went for help. The children said Howie was bobbing up and down in the stream when they shouted to him and got no answer.

According to officials, Howard and his brother Norman were playing near the stream when the accident occurred. Seven-year-old Norman said he was in a field adjacent to Dutch Run when he heard a splash which he thought was caused by a rock. When he investigated, his brother was bobbing in a five-foot pool newly dug out by heavy rains of the past summer.

Gerald Lester, who lives beside the stream on Jackson Run Road, said he had lost most of his possessions in flash floods which have kept the ordinarily quiet stream riled all summer.

The victim's father was killed about two years ago when an automobile went out of control on Walker's Curve, Jackson Run Road.

The young man had three brothers: Norman 7, Nicholas 6, and John 2; also a half sister, Barbara Filiger.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Special Reviewing Stand Collapses During Regatta

Washington (AP)—A special reviewing stand collapsed at the President's Cup Regatta yesterday, injuring at least 35 persons none of them critically.

Officials said the stand apparently gave way when the approximately 600 persons on it leaped to their feet at the start of the final heat of the power boat races. The wooden platform was about 50 feet long and 3 feet high.

Most seriously injured was Patricia M. Becker, 26, a secretary, who suffered a compound fracture of the right leg. Several dozen persons were treated at the scene or at a hospital.

Most of the estimated 50,000 persons watching the races on the Potomac River apparently were unaware of the incident.

Young Hit-and-Run Driver Is Foiled By Alert Police Work

Another instance of alert police work Saturday apprehended a youthful hot rodder who hit and fled Friday night after sideswiping a 1956 Cadillac convertible.

Robert Klakamp, 18, of Jackson street extension, was taken in tow by police Saturday night and admitted under questioning that he had struck a car parked on Oneida avenue Friday evening.

According to an eyewitness, the driver swooped around the corner onto Oneida at a high rate of speed and brushed against the convertible causing an estimated $200 damage along the entire side. The witness said the moving vehicle would probably have overturned if it had not struck the parked car, owned by Anthony J. Lucia, 231 Oneida avenue.

Police were called into the case shortly after it occurred at 9 p. m. Friday. Working on meager clues including little other information than that the car which fled was black, thorough police investigation turned up the Klakamp boy 24 hours later.

Officers Robert Schmader and Donald Fitch collared the young hotrodder Saturday night. He admitted that after the accident he had gone out the road past Sherwood Rebnery and then up Cobham Park and over to Jackson Run Extension where he had spent the night.

Early Saturday he had taken his car over to a friend's house on Fifth avenue and parked it with the damaged side next to a fence to hide the evidence.

He will make a court appearance later this month.

Chief Mike Evan said the accident was just one of numerous hit and run offenses which have occurred lately in the borough. A combination of charges will be pressed against the Klakamp boy and Chief Evan suggests others take note.

PILOT IS KILLED IN CRASH

Clarion (AP)—A 33-year-old pilot, flying alone from Youngstown, Ohio, to Norristown, Pa., was killed Saturday as his small plane plunged into a wooded section two miles west of Clarion.

State police said Charles Holden, 42, Gainwood Rd. Levittown, Pa., burned to death when his four-place Navion appeared to disintegrate in the air then plunged to the ground and burst into flames.

SITUATION IS DISCUSSED AT LONG CONFERENCE BETWEEN SEC. DULLES AND PRESIDENT

BULLETIN

Washington (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said after a conference with President Eisenhower today there is no American plan to finance the "detouring of the Suez Canal." Dulles told reporters at the White House the United States is prepared to help finance, through the Export-Import Bank, increased exports of American oil to Western nations if transit through the canal is impractical or greatly diminished. Asked whether he was barring financial aid to other nations to help them transport oil around Africa and thus detour the canal, Dulles said he and Eisenhower have planned only as a contingency the financing of American oil exports. "We have not gone beyond that in our planning and we do not believe we will have to," Dulles said. He spent an hour with Eisenhower in advance of his scheduled departure later in the day for London.

Washington (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles leaves by plane for London today, prepared to pledge dollar loan aid and American oil shipments for nations which agree to avoid a military showdown with Egypt over the Suez Canal.

Fully supported by President Eisenhower, he will seek to persuade an 18-nation conference to rely on United Nations action and financial pressure to thwart Egyptian President Nasser's seizure of the waterway.

He reportedly was prepared to offer up to half a billion dollars in U. S. Export-Import Bank loans to help other countries meet their oil needs without using the canal.

Dulles is reported to regard the London conference, opening Wednesday, as one of the most difficult of the many flying assignments he has undertaken on behalf of the Eisenhower administration.

London (AP)—Sixteen out of the 18 nations which originally backed the plan for international control of the Suez Canal were reported today to have accepted invitations to a new conference here Wednesday to set up a users' association.

Still to be heard from, British officials said, were Ethiopia and Spain. Spain is reluctant to join in the talks because of its desire to remain on good terms with its Arab neighbors.

While the acceptances poured in, many of the countries expressed misgivings about the idea of the association and made it plain they were not committing themselves in advance to adopting the plan—denounced by Egyptian President Nasser as a step toward war.

It is likely the first idea of the association—to regulate traffic through Suez—would be radically changed before the new London conference, successor to the 22-nation Suez conference of mid-August, is finished.

Some sources speculated that a complete boycott of the canal was the new long-range Western scheme to force Egypt to give up sole control of the waterway.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, who gathered the association idea, was reported ready to offer half a billion dollars and American oil aid to soften the increased cost to the other nations of sending ships the long way around the Cape of Good Hope. He will arrive here tomorrow for talks with the British and French.

Such a boycott would leave Nasser in control of the canal but with few customers, since the 18 nations invited here for Wednesday's talks represent from 90 to 95 per cent of the shipping through Suez. It would also avoid the use of force.

Besides the Western Big Three, Ethiopia and Spain, those asked to the conference are: Turkey, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, Pakistan, Iran, West Germany, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Portugal, and the Netherlands.

The Soviet Union warned the Western powers they were playing with fire.

The U. S. offer also would help dollar-short Western Europe to buy American and Venezuelan oil to replace oil from the Arab-owned fields of the Middle East.

Secretary of State Dulles will (Turn to Page Ten)

Hunter Accommodation Folder Being Compiled

Compilation of the annual publication "Accommodations for Hunters, Fishermen and Tourists in Warren County" has been started by the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce and persons wishing to list their accommodations are invited to use this free service.

Letters and questionnaires have been mailed out to all those who were listed in the folder last season and should be returned not later than September 22. Any person who has rooms or cabins or any type accommodation for hunters or tourists and did not receive a questionnaire is asked to telephone the Chamber office, 470, and a form will be mailed immediately.

Over 4,000 of the Accommodations folders are mailed throughout Pennsylvania and nearby states in time for hunting season. The folder contains information as to type of lodgings, meals, rates, guide service, and summer accommodations.

There is no advertising in the folder and absolutely no charge to persons wishing to be listed. This annual service is under the direction of a Chamber committee whose chairman is Paul W. Yagge. The folder has become a year-round service inasmuch as it lists summer accommodations and is used to promote more tourist travel in the area.

KIWANIS CONVENTION

Services Tuesday Morning For Victim of Spring Creek Crash

Plans for the funeral of Robert Jay Drake, 20, of 108 Railroad street, Corry, who lost his life in an unexplained crash on the Corry-Spring Creek road Friday night between ten and eleven o'clock, were announced today. Following a prayer service in Corry Tuesday morning committal will take place in the cemetery at French Creek with the Rev. Walter E. Garstka, of that place, officiating.

According to the investigating officers there were no witnesses to the fatal accident which occurred about 10:20 p. m. Troopers from the Corry State Police barracks say it is impossible to determine what caused Drake's car to veer off the highway and slam broadside against a heavy duty telephone pole. Joining the State Police were Charles VerMilyea, deputy Warren county coroner, and Erie County Deputy Coroner Bob Bracken, of Corry. For a time it was believed the fatality occurred in Erie county, but later it was discovered it was in Warren county near the Erie line.

Regarding the accident the Corry Journal says:

Drake was killed instantly in the crash. He suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries. Nearly every bone in his body was broken as the 1950 Mercury he was driving bent double around the pole.

State Police contacted Corry volunteer firemen and asked them to stand by at the scene when it (Turn to Page Seven)

Northern Area Joint Board Holds First Meeting In New Room at Eisenhower Building

The Northern Area Joint School Board held its regular September meeting on Wednesday, September 12, in the Conference Room in the General Dwight D. Eisenhower High School Building. This was the first time that the Board has held one of its formal meetings in the new building. It is expected that henceforth the meetings will be regularly conducted in that place.

Last minute plans concerning the opening of the new building for high school classes received the evening's emphasis. It was decided that high school students should report for half day sessions in the forenoon of Friday, September 14 and Monday September 17, and that the length of subsequent sessions will depend upon progress in the construction work. It was also decided that on days when circumstances mandate a half-day schedule in high school, elementary schools in Lander, Russell, and Sugar Grove shall also honor the earlier closing time to enable the transportation system to move on the earlier hour.

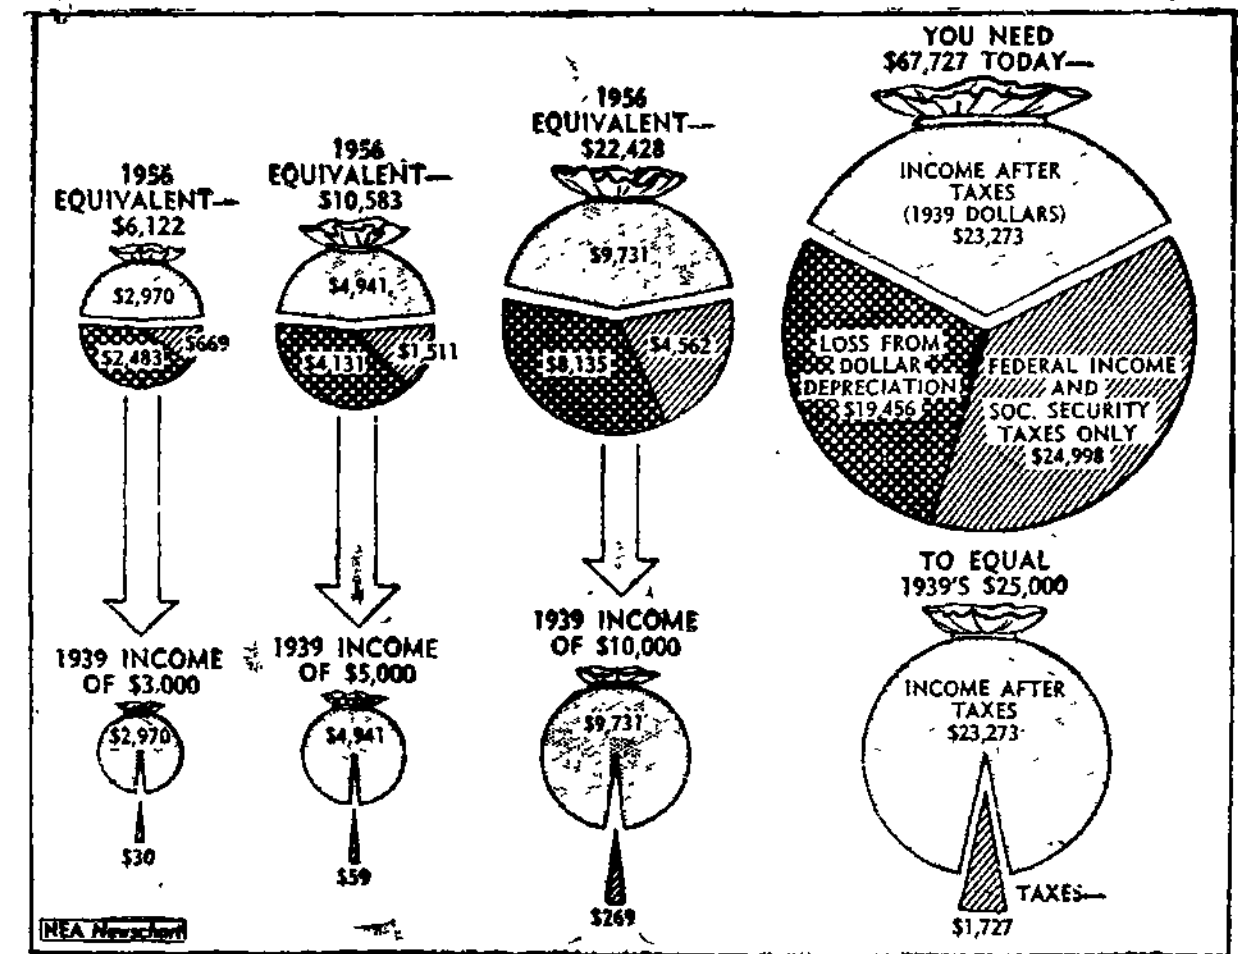

Travers Stohlberg, president, presided over the session and called the members' attention to several items of interest which were contained in the Supervising Principal's Report which was submitted by Everett Landin. Primary position among these items was a message of appreciation which Benton Baird, vice president, of the Northern Area Board had written on behalf of his fellow board members who comprise the Board's Building Committee. In his message Mr. Baird stressed the member's awareness of the "long hours of midnight oil which were burned", and indicated that the new building stands as a tangible and fitting result of those efforts.

Other report items were varied in nature. The first day of school in the elementary schools revealed an enrollment of 119 students in grade 1, 121 students in grade 2, 122 students in grade three, 133 students in grade four, 99 students in grade five, 83 students in grade six, and a total of 677 students in all elementary schools. A letter from the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction revealed that Northern Area districts would receive about $625 additional state reimbursement which recently enacted state legislation mandates for programs in Driver Education which were conducted during the 1954-1955 school year.

Floyd Marsh, chairman of the Personnel Committee, presented a report for that committee. On its basis the board voted to offer Mrs. Betty Nobbs, Sugar Grove, a half time position as a clerk in the office of the Sugar Grove Elementary School and Mrs. Mary Lou Falconer Lander a half-time position in the Lander Elementary School. It was announced that David Spencer, Corry, has accepted the contract to serve as a commercial teacher in the high school which was offered to him as a result of the regular August meeting. Miss Dorothy Curtis and Rev. David Vennberg were added to the list of approved substitute teachers.

Lawrence Briggs, teacher of high school mathematics and science had submitted a request for a year's leave of absence to enable him to restore his health. Mr. Briggs' request was granted, and Dr. Melburn Landin was employed to teach in Mr. Briggs' place for as much of the 1956-1957 academic year as shall elapse before he is summoned to serve as a dentist in the United States Air Corps. Dr. Landin holds a commis-

YOU NEED DOUBLE TO STAY EVEN WITH '39—Say in 1939 you had a wife and two kids and earned $3,000 a year. After federal income and social security taxes, you had $2,970 left to spend. Today, to have that sum left, you'd have to earn $6,122 a year—or more than double your 1939 income. That's the story the moneybags above tell for various incomes. It's the story of today's higher taxes and the depreciation of the dollar, using 1939 as the standard. Of your $6,122 in 1956, you can write off $2,483 for depreciation. Then deduct $669 for taxes. That leaves you the $2,970 you had in 1939. Data from National Industrial Conference Board.

ion from this service and is awaiting call.

Mrs. Allene Briggs, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, presented a report for that committee as a result of these recommendations it was voted to authorize the released time religious education program in each elementary school community as long as local church groups take the responsibilities for providing building facilities and teaching personnel for the program and if it can be so scheduled that each group would devote either the beginning or closing portions of a half day session to the program. It was also decided to request the teaching and administrative staffs to complete a survey of Northern Area Students and to report this survey's findings concerning the need for classes for handicapped children in Northern Area.

Routine items of business included the approval of the minutes of the August meeting which were presented by Mrs. Hazel Kays, secretary. Mrs. Kay also presented bills which equalled $4,486.12 for elementary schools and $3,747.09 for high school which were approved for payment. It was also announced that payment of the $81,036.24 annual rental to the State Public School Building Authority had been paid on Tuesday, September 12.

Other items of business which were decided depended upon the Building Committee Report which was presented by John H. Stewart, Building Committee Chairman, and Norge Luvison Building Representative. It was decided to authorize the Building Committee to proceed with plans for landscaping the exterior of the Eisenhower Building and the surrounding campus. The same Committee is also to proceed with the remaining work in seeding the athletic field. It was also announced that the heating and lighting bills of the new building will become the board's responsibility after September 17. The State Authority has been authorized to proceed in preparing specifications and advertising for bids for the various equipment items, largely appliances for the home economics area, which were not contracted when the main portion of the equipment was contracted. It was reported that Mrs. Herman Rockwell and Mrs. William Lyon had been employed to work with the custodial staff in the new Eisenhower building.

A discussion concerning student driving to school followed with special mention of a newspaper appeal which the supervising principal had issued earlier. A resolution was adopted urging the school administrators "to do everything possible to encourage maximum use of buses by high school students and to set up and enforce adequate regulations governing travel to school and parking at school when means other than buses are used." It is the Board's and administrators' opinion that refraining from driving cars (except in case of extreme necessity) will materially reduce the danger of traffic accidents to all students as well as the public.

Before adjournment, the night of Wednesday, October 10, was selected as the next meeting date.

Dem Candidate for Congress Guest at Tionesta Meeting

The VFW Hall in Tionesta was the scene of a well-attended gathering of members and friends of the Forest County Democratic League, when 125 persons gathered to honor Grace M. Sloan, Clarion, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 23rd Congressional District.

Among other guests introduced were Miss Sarah Huff, candidate for Assembly from Forest county; Mrs. Louise M. St. John, vice chairman of the state Democratic committee; and Mrs. Victoria Pequinot, member of the state policy committee.

Following dinner, the meeting was opened by Mrs. Robert Kunselman, president of the League and secretary of the Forest county Democratic committee.

After welcoming members and guests, Mrs. Kunselman turned the session over to Mrs. Vincent Mascoe, president of the Federation of Democratic Women of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Sloan stressed that she is running on the Democratic platform "as it was drawn up at the convention in Chicago," reviewing the platform and some of its major planks.

Constitution Week Reminder!

Calling attention to the annual observance of Constitution Week, September 16 to 22, Burgess William E. Rice today urged the citizens of this borough, by study and by appropriate ceremonies, to renew their devotion and dedication to the American Way as expressed by the Constitution of the United States.

"In these days of great convulsive change in the affairs of nations and of men," the Burgess said, "we American citizens need to strengthen our resolve to foster our democratic way. The American Way is nowhere better defined than in our basic national covenant, the Constitution.

"We Americans are very much inclined to take our liberty for granted, and during this week it might be well for all of us to review the trials, the honest disagreements between honorable men and finally the God-inspired thoughts which resulted in this great political charter of human liberty.

"It seems proper to me that part of the school week be devoted to study of at least the Preamble and the Bill of Rights, and that we adult citizens improve our concept of this glowing symbol of just and equitable rule.

"We share a priceless heritage in the federal Constitution, which was drafted in Independence Hall in our Commonwealth, and I respectfully call upon all my fellow citizens of this community not to let Constitution Week go by unheeded. This is a fine opportunity to renew our commitments to live, as well as speak, our fealty to the fundamentals of the American Way."

W P L REPORTING

As we go into the fall and winter season once more, we at the Public Library will begin to see many of the familiar patrons who have not been in as often in the summer.

We shall welcome all our vacationing patrons, and we shall try to help you in every way we can this year. There have been several changes in the staff of the library, and we do want our patrons to become acquainted with the new members of the staff.

Mrs. Lilith Johnson has returned as a desk assistant. She has been helping on a part time schedule for a number of years, and now, is able to come back to fill a full time position.

Miss Lillian Blomwell has joined the staff as bookkeeper and will also help at the circulation desk.

There are several people who are seldom seen by our patrons, and we should like you to know about them also, as these behind-the-scenes people are just as important as the girls who serve you at the desk. Miss Miriam Richardson, is our member, she keeps the books in the excellent condition that you find them, she also pastes the pockets and the bookplates in all the new books. Miss Charlotte Erickson is our cataloger, she is responsible for the card catalog, which makes it possible for you to locate books in the library. The charging desk is under the supervision of Mrs. Edna Swanson, who is aided by Mrs. Florence Aldrich, Mrs. Audress Siggins, Mrs. Johnson, and Miss Margaret McCutcheon. Our Children's Librarian is Miss Ann Lesser. There are also three high school pages, Miss Sally Slate, Miss Sue Pritchard, and Miss Gale Scholes.

The building is capably cared for by Ralph Davis and Carl Nelson.

The entire staff, including the librarian, Mrs. Georgia Coyle, are at the library to help you. If you have a program to plan for this winter, do not hesitate to call us for ideas. There are also several members of the staff who are available for book reviews, or we shall be very happy to explain the services of the Warren Public Library to your group. Miss Ann Lesser, the Children's Librarian, is also available to discuss children's books, and the Children's Room of the Warren Public Library.

Interesting Program Arranged For AAA Meeting in Pittsburgh

The delegation from the Warren county Motor Club attending the annual meeting of the American Automobile Association in Pittsburgh three days starting tomorrow, will be among 1,200 AAA motor club officers and delegates from throughout the United States and possessions at the gathering which will give major consideration to problems concerning highway planning and construction under the new Federal-Aid legislation, traffic safety, and travel. Speakers include Edward R. Morrow, CBS commentator and moderator of the TV program "Person to Person"; Palmer Hoyt, editor and publisher of the Denver Post; David Lawrence, mayor of Pittsburgh, and Franklin Moore, of Harrisburg, president of the Inter-American Hotel Association.

Mr. Moore will speak at the association's annual banquet on the subject "From Every Mountain Side."

Taking a leading part in the association's program will be John S. Giles, of Reading, president of the AAA-Pennsylvania Motor Federation and chairman of the important AAA Highway Committee. He will preside at a panel session on highways, which will include such participants as Pyke Johnson, consultant, Automotive Safety Foundation; C. D. Curtiss, U. S. Commissioner of Public Roads; General Lacey V. Murrow, AAA highway consultant; Glenn C. Richards, Commissioner of Public Works, Detroit, Michigan; Keith L. Seegmiller, Executive Secretary of the National Association of County Officials, and Rex M. Whitton, president of the American Association of State Highway Officials.

Andrew J. Sordani, of Wilkes-Barre, president of the Wyoming Valley Motor Club at Wilkes-Barre, and for many years president of the AAA-Pennsylvania Motor Federation, will end his second term as president of the national association.

Delegates will also hear a welcome from the Automobile Club of Pittsburgh's president George O. Yohe; will hear an explanation of the "Pittsburgh Story" by Pittsburgh's Mayor David L. Lawrence, and will give particular attention to motor club developments in Pennsylvania.

Those who will be present from Warren are President Dr. Quay A. McCune, H. B. Bowersox and Nels A. Anderson.

COMMUNICATION DIVISION

By Henry C. Walker Head of Communications

The Communications Division is charged with the maintenance of communications with all local districts in the County of Warren and with the State Council of Civil Defense through the Western Area Control in Butler. Supervision of the Bell and Lights Warning System is also a part of the responsibility of this Division. The Bell and Lights Warning System was installed throughout the State to provide instant notice of impending enemy attacks and other alerts. In Warren county there are seven Bell and Lights Stations located as follows:

Civil Defense Office-Court House Annex.

Warren Borough Police Headquarters

Warren Central Fire Station

Warren General Hospital.

Warren State Hospital.

State Police.

Warren High School.

The stations at Warren Borough Police, Warren Central Fire Station, Warren General Hospital, Warren State Hospital and the State Police, where someone is on duty twenty-four hours a day, are provided with call lists which include all District Directors and all key personnel of the County Council of Civil Defense. Upon receipt of warning over the Bell and Lights system the stations designated above will call by telephone those persons listed on their call sheets, thus key personnel throughout the county can be alerted within a few minutes after receipt of the warning. The system has worked well during every practice alert and those at the Bell and Lights stations have performed their allotted tasks in a commendable manner.

After the receipt of a warning, the personnel alerted carry on in a prescribed manner. The personnel connected directly with county C. D. Headquarters inform others on their staff and then proceed to County Control Center in the Court House Annex. This Control Center is the nerve center of all C. D. operations in the county. The County Director of Civil Defense and his Division Chiefs are located at this center, or work from it. All information on any situation is reported to this center and orders for appropriate action are issued from it.

In the Control Center are five telephones manned by a group of trained telephonists under the supervision of Mrs. Katherine Fuelhart. Messages to and from various points in the county and the western area headquarters are handled by this group.

Robert Anstadt, Manager of the Bell Telephone Company, is Assistant Division Chief in charge of telephones.

In another section of the Control Center are radio transmitters which operate in the Warren County Fire Service Radio Communication System and with the Sheriff's office and car units.

The Warren County Fire Service Radio Communications System, one of which the county may be very proud, operates twenty-four hours of the day for the protection of life and property in the county. There are 52 radio units in this system, several fixed stations in fire stations, some walkie-talkie units and the most in fire trucks. The value of this fine service has been demonstrated in recent disastrous fires as well as during the March flood.

The Sheriff's radio service communicates with two mobile units located in county automobiles as well as with other enforcement agencies in nearby counties.

A direct wire connection runs from C. D. headquarters to Station WNAE and WRRN so that broadcasts if on instructions can be Homer Haines, Chief Engineer of WNAE, is Assistant Division Chief in charge of Commercial Radio which includes the Fire and Sheriff's systems.

The third section of the Communication Division is Amateur Radio under the supervision of County Amateur Radio Officer Glen Nelson. The County is in process of securing a Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Services (RACES) license which will permit operation during and after an enemy attack when other amateur stations will be silent. Until this license is received Amateur Radio Service is being supplied to the county by the Warren County Emergency Radio Association among whose members are a number of members of the Military Amateur Radio Service. This group maintains a station in the County Control Center and will provide radio service throughout the county wherever it is needed. The splendid service rendered by this group during the March flood is also a matter of record.

In addition to the foregoing methods, Boy Scouts have been and will be used as foot messengers from the County Control Center.

Space does not permit the listing of all those who comprise the County Communications Division. They are deserving of praise for the work they have already done and are prepared to do again if needed.

The County Control Center is located in the Court House Annex at 210 Fourth Avenue and will be open for your inspection on Friday evening, September 14 from 7 p. m. until 9 p. m. Please pay us a visit and we will be happy to explain things in more detail.

Straps Stay Out of the Way

One of the important trends in dress-up fall fashions this year is the plunging neckline—in back. Foundation garments for this fashion should assure a strapless view, front and back. One good choice (left) is a bra with side sections of elastic, placed diagonally and boned, to hold the bra in place low on the back.

NECKLINE has new meaning in this fall's styles. It refers to the back view as well as the front, for the trend is toward a plunging line in the rear.

More and more cocktail and evening dresses are bare in the back, sometimes to the waistline.

So any fall wardrobes that include these popular clothes must include bra, bralette or corset to go under them. Straps that show in back are as unbecoming as straps that show in front.

The way to avoid having to

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

pin or hitch straps out of the way all evening is to buy new foundations when selecting new fall party clothes. This way, the depth of the backlines, the lines of dress and of body can be coordinated.

Selecting low-backed foundations depends, as all foundation buying, on the figure. The slim lass needs only a bandeau, for she has no flesh across the back to be kept under control.

So the slim and svelte who favor a velvet or jersey dress with no back at all will want to select from among the bandeaux that fit wide at the shoulders and anchor around the waist.

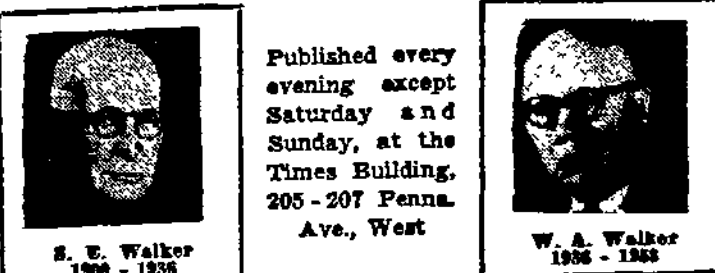

Dresses that are strapless, in addition, call for a strapless bra-siere with side inserts of elastic that permit the band to plunge in back without slipping off.

Average or full figures that need back and midriff control, in addition in bosom control, call for a bralette or corset. This smooths the torso to sheath lines. Fuller figures will select foundations that alternate elastic with panels of non-stretch fabric.

For the front view's maximum effect, the wearer must select with care. The plunging-in-back fashions that have high front necks call for a high and rounded cup to refine the figure to the stylish line. Lines that plunge both front and back call for strapless foundations with wiring under or over and between the cups.

CONSTITUTION WEEK

This reminder about annual Constitution Week is submitted by Mabel G. Granquist, program chairman, General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution:

"Beginning today, September 17, and continuing through to the 23rd let us as Americans observe Constitution Week.

"The Constitution of the United States of America, our greatest heritage, was adopted on Sept. 17, 1787, and went into effect in 1789 after proper ratification.

It is one of the truly great documents of our time and as liberty loving and loyal Americans it is our responsibility to know our rights guaranteed by it and to protect and safeguard it.

The great fundamentals and ideals of our Constitution are:

"(a) The government exists for the benefit of all the people.

"(b) The powers of government arise and abide in the people themselves.

"(c) All men are equal in the eyes of the law and are entitled to the same opportunities.

"These ideals have kindled the minds and stimulated the souls of Americans, creating a desire for individual attainment. They have awakened in individuals tremendous energies and ambitions. They have made man conscious of his real powers.

"Study the Constitution this week, learn its preamble, and display the flag, its symbol. A constitutional minded citizenry is our greatest guarantee of preserving the American way of life."

OUTLOOK IN POLIOMYELITIS

The outlook in poliomyelitis, both immediate and long range, appears favorable, according to statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Through the first eight months of 1956, reported cases of the disease are 45 percent fewer than in the comparable period of last year.

An outstanding feature of the long-term poliomyelitis trend, say the statisticians, is a pronounced shift to the older ages. The disease now claims more of its victims among older children and among adults up to 35 than it formerly did, according to the mortality experience of the insurance company's Industrial policy-holders.

The shift in the age pattern, the statisticians comment, may result primarily from a rise in the age at which natural immunity is acquired, possibly reflecting lessened frequency of hospital admissions of cases with paralytic poliomyelitis at ages 7 and 8, it is noted, coincided with the wide use of the Salk vaccine at those ages.

COMMANDMENTS FOR TEEN-AGERS

A subscriber sends us this clipping from the column in the Buffalo Courier-Express "As I See It", which apparently was contributed to that paper under the heading "Ten Commandments for Teen-Agers":

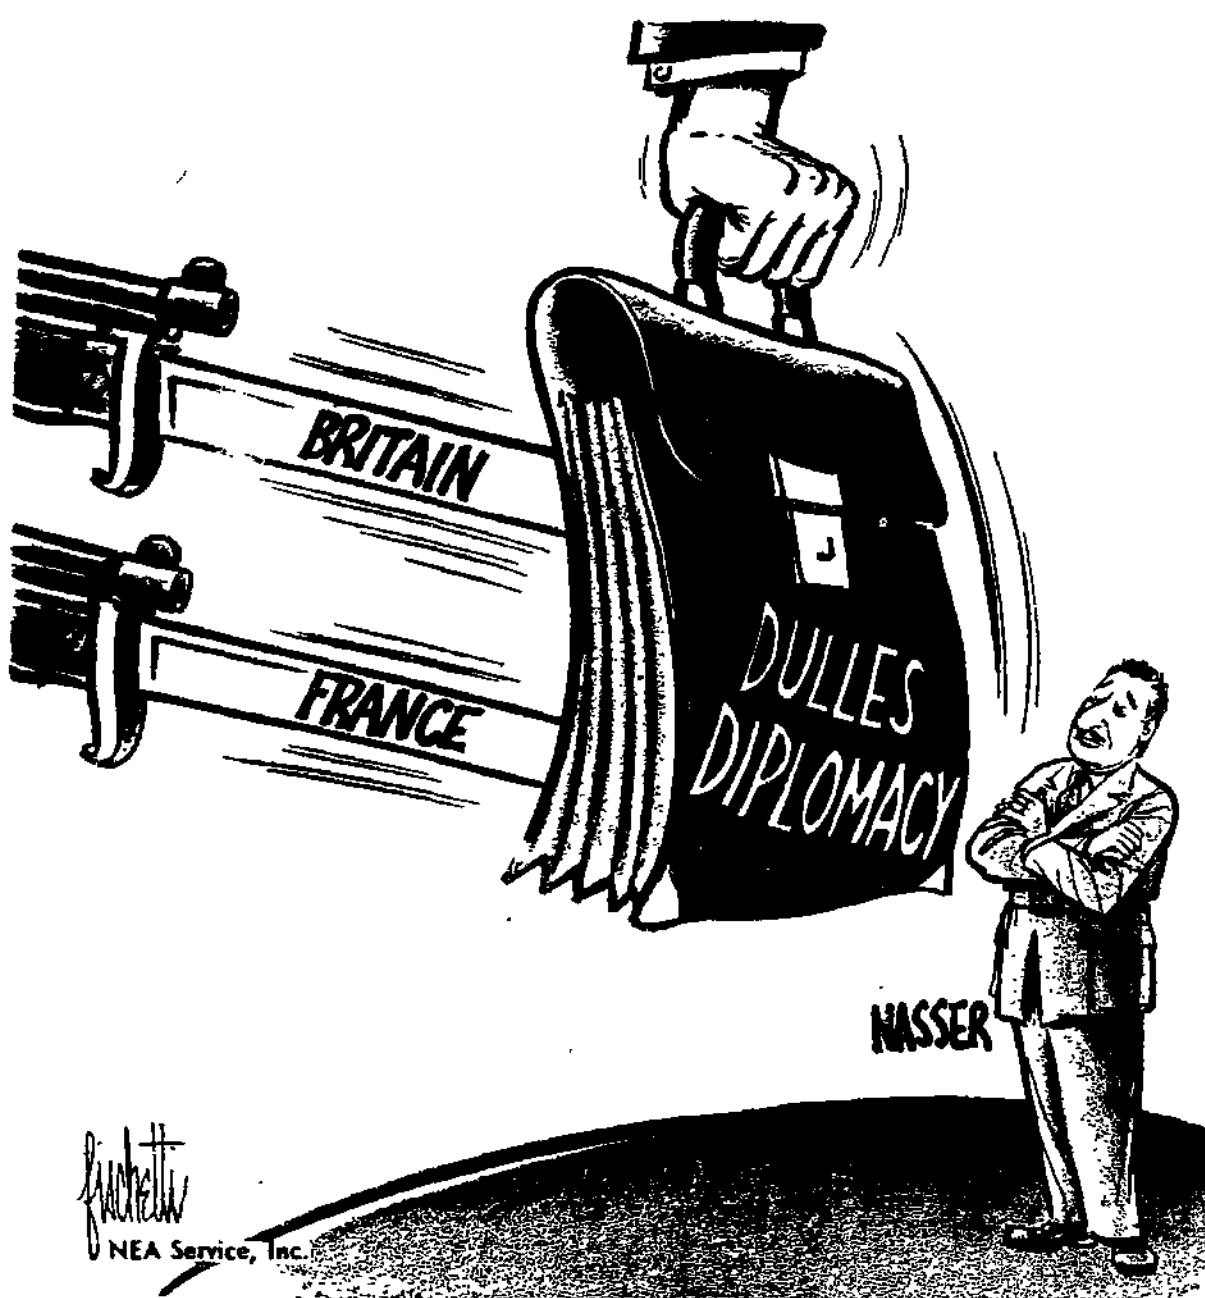

1. Stop and think before you drink.
2. Don't let your parents down. They brought you up.
3. Be humble enough to obey. You will be giving orders yourself some day.
4. At the first moment turn away from unclean thinking—at the first moment.
5. Don't show off when driving. If you want to race, go to Indianapolis.
6. Choose a date who would make a good mate.
7. Go to church faithfully. The Creator gives us the week. Give Him back an hour.
8. Choose your companions carefully. You are what they are.
9. Avoid following the crowd. Be an engine, not a caboose.
10. Or even better—KEEP THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets.—Ecc. 12:5.

It is our souls which are the everlastingness of God's purpose in this earth.—William Mountford.

The Leather Curtain

Here and There

Still more interesting information about local people who were at the Buffalo Exposition Grounds when President McKinley was shot in September, 1901, is being received. In a letter Mrs. Virgil Ruhlman, 81 Farm Lane, tells about the story related by her brother Archie G. Pierce, 709 Lexington avenue, who was at the Fair on that memorable day with his father, John L. Pierce. As described by Mr. Pierce they were attending the centennial at the time. The crowd was so dense immediately where they happened to be near the theatre after the shooting that it was impossible to move more than a few feet, and it remained that way all night long. Then as day began to dawn they were on the sidewalk near a large building when they saw a large black carriage draw up to the curb and President Theodore Roosevelt got out. He was escorted into the building to be sworn in as president. They waited and saw him driven away. Incidentally Mr. Pierce is an invalid, both deaf and blind, and the only way one can communicate with him is by a small radio with microphone and ear receiver that Homer Haines was kind enough to fit up for him. Mr. Pierce has a very good memory, and can tell some interesting things about his travels in his younger days for Hammond Iron Works. In spite of his age he is an interesting conversationalist and he enjoys telling about the experiences he enjoyed. He says he never again would want to get caught in a crowd like the one in Buffalo after the assassination of McKinley 55 years ago.

New identification signs will be displayed on upwards of 45,000 post offices, postal stations and other postal installations where mail service is available to the public, starting the first week of October, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has reported. "The signs will provide an important improvement at a slight cost by making it easier for patrons to identify postal facilities, particularly in the many growing areas over the nation where new locations are not too well known," Mr. Summerfield explained. Also, he noted, these signs will help identify mail facilities for newcomers and tourists in smaller cities, resort areas and in shopping centers that have new postal contract stations in their stores. Such identifications will give better visibility at night, he added. The signs will be red, white and blue decals carrying the words "United States Post Office," in prominent red type against a white background. They are easily placed on windows, glass doors, and in other prominent places in the postal facility.

Usually anonymous communications quickly find their way into one of the large waste paper cans in the editorial department, but one came in over the weekend that we feel contains a thought that is worth passing along. Postmarked Youngsville September 14, at 4:30 p. m. it says: "Editor Warren Times-Mirror. Dear Sir: I note your editorial of September 13th in regard to condition of river and creek. My thoughts are these—why build a swimming pool? Why not clean up the river and creek. As I view it, God made the Allegheny and Conewango beautiful — man made it smell like — — — Come down and view the Brokenstraw. A customer of the Times for over forty years."

We pass this along for the information and consideration of any of our readers who may be interested. From the "Ancient Order of Creole Gourmets, Box 410, New Liberia, Louisiana." "The first World's championship Hot Pepper Eating contest will be held at Dulcito Plantation, New Liberia, Louisiana, October 6. The contest will be the feature of the annual reunion dinner of the Ancient Order of Creole Gourmets, an organization of male descendants of early southwest Louisiana settlers. Contestants must be males over 18 years of age and must present evidence of past pepper-eating accomplishments. The contest will be conducted in six 'heats', the contestants eating their way from hot pepper to hotter pepper. Judging will be done on a point system with awards of ten points each heat for a perfect score. Points will be taken off for such signs of weakness as sweating, agonized facial expression, blowing of breath, etc. During the contest, each competitor will be spurred on to greater effort by a pretty girl cheerleader while a red devil with a pitchfork will keep things lively. The contest is modeled after a hot pepper eating contest described in a fiction story by the late James Street."

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★
Rising Steel Prices Important Factor in New Inflation

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Political charges are now in the making that a new round of inflation is again overtaking the country, after a three-year period of relative price stability. The recent steel strike settlement marked the start of this new spiral. Economists do not believe steel industry wage hikes and the increases in steel prices which followed are the sole cause of the new inflation. But they are an important factor. And they are providing the excuse for price rises in many industries.

The three-year steel wage agreement signed July 27 gave the steel workers an increase of 20 cents an hour the first year, 13 cents an hour more in the second year and another 13 cents in the third year. It raises the average hourly steel wage from $2.66 an hour last year to $3.12 in 1958-59.

Shortly after the contract went into effect, the steel companies raised their prices by $8.50 a ton. This boosted the composite steel price average from $130 to $138.50 a ton according to "Iron Age," authoritative industry trade paper. Some steel company officials say this figure is too low, and that the raise is really from $138.50 to $147 a ton average.

THE IMPORTANT QUESTION, however, is how much of this price increase can be directly attributed to the wage increase. Neither the Iron and Steel Institute nor any of the individual steel companies have released any figures to justify the $8.50 per ton increase.

Public Affairs Institute has been digging into this subject, however. One of the PAI economists, Stephen Raushenbush, has come up with figures that the industry's new wage contract will increase the labor item in steel-making costs by only $2 a ton for this year, $2.50 a ton next year and $3.10 a ton for the last contract year.

If the industry's announced price increase of $8.50 a ton is not advanced still further in the next three years, it means that the new wage increase can be charged with only 23 per cent of the increase first year, 29 the second and 36 the third year.

RAUSHENBUSH ESTIMATES that if steel production runs from 116 to 120 million tons in the next three years, the industry will receive increased gross revenues of over three billion dollars. Of this, about 30 per cent can be charged off to meet wage increases. The other 70 per cent will have to be assigned to other causes, or to increased profits.

No figures are available on the increased prices of materials, transportation and other cost items going into steel production and marketing. But it is in this area, between the $2 to $3 a ton steel labor cost increase and the $8.50 a ton increase in steel selling prices, that the inflationary threat lies.

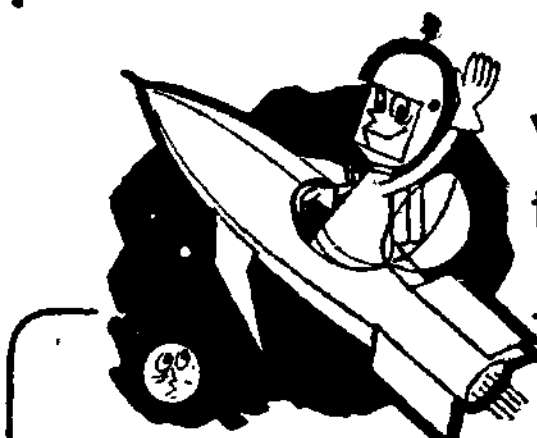

WITHIN A MONTH after the new steel wage contract was signed, other industries which are big steel users announced price increases on their products.

The new 1957 model automobiles will be from $50 to $200 higher. Two big truck companies have announced increases. One has also raised prices on its farm implement lines.

One of the largest machine tool makers has raised prices five to 15 per cent. Other machinery makers are following suit.

Five makers of radios, TVs, washing machines and other household appliances are raising prices two to 10 per cent.

Higher price tags on many items, appearing before Election Day, will give a political filip to the wholesale and consumers' price indexes, already at record peaks.

Awards Dinner Concludes a Most Successful Women's Golf Season

Last Wednesday's sunny skies Lawson, five times a previous winner, greeted an assembly of golfers and twice-a-year contestants who assaulted the golf course at Cone-wango Valley Country Club in a well-named "Monkey" tournament for the ladies.

The foursome with the lowest score was composed of Mrs. Sidney Blackman, Mrs. T. W. Fisher, Mrs. John Carter and Mrs. Wendell Lawson, with Mrs. Paul Fago, Mrs. William Rice, Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. Albert Eberly posting the highest.

Having the greatest number of hazards and putts was a group composed of Mrs. Fred Arnold, Mrs. R. W. Steber, Mrs. George Calderwood and Mrs. T. E. Gannoe.

Mrs. Jeral Angove and her committee, Mrs. Robert Ritchie and Mrs. Gaston Hamilton, had decorated the club and tables in a harvest theme for the closing women's dinner of the season. Sunflowers and colored leaves lined the tables and fall flowers and vegetable arrangements were used throughout.

Mrs. W. J. Sedwick, chairman for the ladies, thanked her committees, the managers and staff of the club, all of whom contributed to a most successful season. Serving with Mrs. Sedwick have been the following:

Handicaps, Mrs. Frederic Printz, assisted by Mrs. Sidney Blackman; Northwestern, Mrs. W. C. Fuelhart; invitational and out of town, Mrs. Gaston Hamilton; May-June, Mrs. Robert Walsh; July, Mrs. E. G. Hamilton; August-September, Mrs. J. H. Kannan and Mrs. Francis Erickson; prizes, Mrs. Lyle Knapp; publicity, Mrs. David Beatty; opening dinner, Mrs. Andrew Paucek.

Taking up unfinished business of the year, awards were made for Ringer scores for August and September: Mrs. Wendell Lawson had low gross and net prizes in the three divisions went to Mrs. Fuelhart, Mrs. Angove and Mrs. Arnold.

Then followed presentation of yearly awards, generously contributed by Printz Co., Kirberger's, Angove Market, golfers and interested members, all deeply appreciated.

In the championship, Mrs. John Carter defeated Mrs. Wendell

—Schenk Photo

Returning from a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. David Wesley Winans, married September 8 in Blairsville Methodist church, will be at home to friends at 8 Jackson avenue.

The bride is the former Gretchen Graff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Graff of Blairsville, and Mr. Winans is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Winans, 111 West Fifth avenue.

White tapers and ferns formed the setting for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Howard Pape. Wedding music was played by a cousin of the bride, Ann Elder of Punxsutawney, while Robert Smith of Pittsburgh, classmate of the bridegroom, sang "Because", "Dearly Beloved", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a full length princess style gown of satin and Alencon lace, fashioned with portrait neckline outlined with lace appliques, and bouffant skirt ending in a chapel sweep train. Seed pearls trimmed the matching lace veil which held her fingertip full of imported illusion, and her flowers were a cascade of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Ballerina princess gowns of Du-Barry pink taffeta were worn by the attendants, their gowns having off-the-shoulder neckline with drapes cascading to the hemline. Ivy wreaths were their hair bandeaux. The honor attendant was the bride's sister, Susanne Graff, carrying a cascade bouquet of deep pink carnations centered with white feathered carnations and ivy. Carrying similar arrangements of light pink and white carnations, with ivy, were the bridesmaids, Ann Clark, LeRoy, N. Y.; Jenette Redfield, Smithport; Mrs. Lawrence Kuhns, Pittsburgh, and Patricia Hart, Blairsville.

Richard Christensen, Warren, was best man; ushers were James Courtney of Meadville, cousin of the bridegroom; Earl Smith, Cleveland, O.; Creed Erickson and Roger Thelin, Warren; and the bride's cousin, Robert Graff, Blairsville.

Wearing white glamoilas, the bride's mother chose a Dior blue faille with matching accessories, and Mrs. Winans wore a rose ensemble.

The reception followed in the home of the bride.

Youngsville BPW To Attend Church For Business Week

Youngsville—Business and Professional Women's Club members, at their first fall meeting, formulated plans for National Business Women's Week, September 23-29, and decided to attend as a group the service in the Methodist church on Sunday, September 23.

The group also discussed proposed programs for the coming months and the advisability of conducting a membership drive. Dorothy Richards, Dorothy Retterer, and Helen Unterreiner were appointed as an auditing committee. A review of last year's activities was presented.

Members were requested to have a card shower for the corresponding secretary, Mary Teonchuk, very ill in Warren General Hospital.

Concluding, a light lunch was served by Mary Morgan, Helen Piper, Shirley Groves and Mary Ann Lucas, with Adella Storch as chairman. Arrangements for the evening were made by the officers.

JEFFERSON UNIT

All members are urged to be on hand this evening, when Jefferson PTA holds its first meeting of the new season in the school auditorium. The topic will be "Your Child and His School", with a special invitation for all to get acquainted with the teachers. Miss Fleming and R. Stone, sixth grade teachers, will be in charge of refreshments for the social hour.

Betrothals

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Reedy, 52 Acheson avenue, Washington, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne, to John F. Kylander, son of Herman G. Kylander, Warren RD 1, and the late Anna K. Kylander. Miss Reedy was graduated from Washington High School and Thiel College at Greenville and is employed by the Higbee Department Store in Cleveland, O. Mr. Kylander will be graduated from Thiel College in January. No date has been set for the wedding.

Furniture Styles Mix and Match

Fall Models Allow Home to Suit Tastes, Needs

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

IN home fashions as in clothes and matching "separates" appeals as much today to mature homemakers as to the young bride.

This fall when a cornucopia of home furnishings spills out in the stores you'll note the frimixture of old and new, traditional and modern, which aim more to please individual tastes and needs than to conform with established style periods.

Those of us who wish to swing a contemporary note or two into a traditional setting will find replacements for worn-out pieces that will not look out of harmony with the older and still useful furniture. For the homemaker who is just starting to furnish a home such mixing and matching can be the nucleus for a home that is a true reflection of her, the family's likes and needs.

ONE OF THE FIRST furniture purchases most of us make and one of the first to need replacement is the upholstered sofa and chair.

Although there are stacks of extra-long, extra-impressive sectional arrangements and conventional sofas, I for one, am encouraged by the number of good-looking, comfortable, modest-sized sofas. Some of us simply don't have the wall space or the floor space to support over-scaled seating pieces.

The old-fashioned loveseat or two-seat size bounds back in contemporary dress in all price ranges.

One moderately priced example has the curved and inviting appeal of provincial styling but it boasts the modern comfort of foam rubber cushions and simplified, clean lines.

Traditional and modern styles mix and match compatibly in this setting to underscore the trend toward more individualized interiors. Provincial loveseat with button-tufted back matches in feeling the provincial print of drapery fabric and the lamp but mixes easily with contemporary brass and marble coffee table. Tiny table at right has webbed top, can double as seat or snack table.

Another in the tailored, modern vein is low priced and upholstered in silicone-treated fabrics, a modern innovation for easier maintenance.

You'll also see wing-backed loveseats that carry the colonial stamp in silhouette and the contemporary look in upholstery prints.

Such simply styled seating pieces mix well with the more contemporary designs in tables and chests.

PLASTIC "MARBLE" table top, the graceful brass legs and stretchers of one such table are strictly 1956 yet lend an elegance to a provincial setting.

The use of old-fashioned webbing and cane for tops on tables and and chest doors also helps other modern styles mix with traditional.

In drapery fabrics many of the frankly traditional prints match up with the older furniture but they'll introduce a modern note in their color ways, their scaling of the motif or the way in which they're used at the picture window.

Smart Wives Don't Just Keep Up, They Stay Ahead

THE smartest wives don't keep in step with their husbands through the years. They keep at least one step out in front.

They know when to save and skip and live frugally. But they also know when it is time for the family to move forward.

They don't begrudge the demands their husbands' jobs make on them. But they know when to drag those husbands away from their work for a day or a weekend so they can come back to the job refreshed.

They keep up with old friends but keep life interesting with new acquaintances.

They know security is important—but they aren't so cautious they can't see that a man must take a chance now and then if he is to get ahead.

As soon as they sense that their marriage is settling into a rut they get busy thinking up a new project, planning some fun, moving their goals forward.

Men don't fall into the dulllest kinds of routine living if they have wives who are always egging them on to new adventures.

THEY'RE THINKING WAY AHEAD

THESE wives help a man to find interest in his own life, encourage him to take part in community affairs, or get him interested in traveling instead of wishing silently that he would get interested in something.

They assume responsibility for the family's social life instead of complaining that they are married to stay-at-homes who never suggest going anywhere.

They usually realize it before a man is willing to admit that he isn't as young as he used to be and should slow down a little. They encourage the slowing down without being too obvious about it.

Smart wives aren't content with trying to keep up with their husbands. They know that a successful wife must keep at least one step ahead.

The Mature Parent

When Big Sis Feels Cheated, Remember Your Childhood

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

LAST year Joan had a teacher who wore eyeglasses. Now when she plays school, she likes to wear some old lensless rims her Grandma gave her.

One day coming home from the library, she found her little sister Elsie wearing them. Shouting "Give me those!" she grabbed at them; but Elsie cluded her by ducking out the front door. Rushing to the kitchen, Joan cried to her mother, "Elsie's got my glasses! Make her give them to me. They're mine! Grandma gave them to me..."

"Elsie isn't going to harm those old rims," her mother said. "If you'd let her play with them, she's get tired of them. But you make such a fuss over them, you make her think you've got something so wonderful she wants it."

JOAN rejected this reasoning, good though it was. Bursting into furious tears, she cried, "Oh, I'm so sick of everything!" and fled to the bathroom.

We can't reason with a jealous child. No matter how wise our counsel he can't listen to it because he's so afraid we're going to cheat him.

So let's not inflict the reasoning on him. Instead, let's try speaking directly to his fear, saying to Joan: "Don't be afraid I'm going to cheat you." And calling Elsie from the yard, say, "Give the eyeglass rims back to Sister. They are here and you can't play with them unless she says so."

To jealous Joan, it will be a great relief to hear us put that fear of our cheating her into words. She doesn't dare know how it worries her.

YET it is the secret feeling which intensifies her anger when Elsie seems intent on mistreating her, oppressing her not only with rage at her sister but with the really frightening suspicion that we want her mistreated.

When we expose it to her in words, showing ourselves comfortable and unimpressed by it, it loses much of its alarm for her. If we continue to speak of it as natural but unalarming, her anger at Elsie will lose their desperation.

Joan fears we'll let her little sister cheat her of her eyeglasses because, as she sees it, we have allowed Elsie to cheat her of the total attention she once enjoyed as an only child.

If you can feel back to your own jealous suspicions that your parents were cooperating in your mistreatment by younger children, you will know exactly how to use this column's suggestion.

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. MERLE M. DODGE

At 7:00 p. m. Friday, September 15, in Grace Methodist church, the Rev. C. W. Baldwin performed a double ring ceremony to unite in marriage Patricia Ann Kupniewski, daughter of Mrs. Rose Eastman of Pittsburgh RD 2, and Merle M. Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge, Clarendon RD 1. All decorations were vases of white pom poms and snapdragons. The bride wore a ballerina gown of white nylon net and lace, a small white hat, and a shoulder sash. Her only jewelry was a hionestone cross.

Barbara E. Sheckler of Tidoute, her only attendant, wore a corsage of yellow baby roses with a street length brown and white print. Eugene Dodge, Buffalo, N. Y., was best man for his brother. Mrs. Dodge chose a beige suit, with corsage of red baby roses. The newlyweds will reside at 115 Conewango avenue. The bride is a 1956 graduate of Tidoute High School and is employed at Montgomery Ward's. Mr. Dodge attended Warren schools and is an employee of Jamestown Malleable Iron Company.

Bride-Elect Known Here

Mr. and Mrs. Duane H. Murray, 40 Davenport street, Meadville, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Louise Jane, to John Dodd Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irving Bates, also of Meadville. The bride-elect is the daughter of the former Helen Pressel of Warren and granddaughter of former school official, W. M. Pressel, 9 Conewango Place. Miss Murray was graduated from Meadville High School in 1953 and in 1955 from Grove City College, where she was a member of Alpha Beta Tau. She is employed in the Meadville offices of Westinghouse Electric Corp. Her fiance is a 1952 graduate of Mercersburg Academy and a '56 graduate of Duke University, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He is an employee of the Tribune Publishing Co. An early spring wedding is being planned.

Climbing Up the Social Ladder

Laundering Now Out in the Open, Getting Scientific

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

NEW 1957 home laundry appliances now tempting the homemaker point up more dramatically than ever the radical changes that have taken place in the laundry room in the last 10 years.

Not so long ago, laundry room equipment was intended to be used primarily once a week. The less in evidence it was between times, the better. Washing methods, learned from mother, were standard. When we settled down to the weekly wash, not much else was done that day.

Then came automatic equipment styled in handsome cabinets. More convenient placement for frequent use during the week was desirable. The homemaker can now supervise the wash while attending to other household affairs.

New features of automatic washers such as more exact control of water levels and temperatures, two cycles, dispensers, optional cold water rinses and more varied settings on automatic dryers tell only part of the story. To keep pace with the development of new washable textiles and detergents, hard-working home service directors of the major manufacturers strive to develop advanced methods that will help us do a better and easier job.

Recently I enjoyed an interview with Marcia Mead, home service director of Whirlpool-Seeger, about some of her work with modern fabrics. She thinks that modern fabrics, synthetic fibers in particular, should be washed as they accumulate. One way to keep track of the nylon or dacron shirts, under-

New super-automatic home laundry equipment and the increasing number of washable textiles are changing the character of the laundry room and washdays. Dad's washable man-made fiber suit, for example, comes out of the dryer practically ready for wear.

In the matter of men's or boys' washable suits, Miss Mead finds better results are obtained when they are tumble-dried rather than drip-dried. She washes such suits in medium hot water for four minutes and uses the full cycle.

She dries on a medium heat setting. The drying time varies but she advises removing suits when the double thicknesses, such as shoulder pads and pockets are still slightly damp. If you pre-heat the dryer, this takes about 10 minutes. Hang up to finish drying.

Such new additions to household (including our own) as dacron-filled comforters, Miss Mead has also washed and dried automatically with good results. The trick here is to pre-treat stains, then soak or wash in a delicate-fabric cycle for not more than four minutes at medium water temperature if colorfast. In an automatic dryer, dry at low heat for 10-20 minutes but avoid over-drying. Over-drying creates static electricity, says Miss Mead.

Because so many of the clothes I buy or make are of cotton with special finishes I asked Miss Mead what she'd advise on their treatment.

Many polished cottons, says Miss Mead, are treated with a resin finish and she advises washing in warm, not hot, water because heat could possibly soften the finish.

Some are chlorine-retentive which means no chlorine bleach should be used. Remove from the dryer while still slightly damp.

The so-called "disciplined" fabrics are treated with a fiber-deep finish that won't wash off or wear out. These will take chlorine bleaching if necessary, says Miss Mead. They can also be washed in medium hot water.

wear, and blouses is to reserve a small hamper for them. White nylons, orlons and dacrons may be washed together in hot water. Colored synthetics should be washed separately in warm water for a maximum, Miss Mead says, of four minutes.

If you have a delicate-fabric cycle on your machine, this is the time to use it. The slower washing action and shortened time of this cycle is supposed to protect seams from fraying.

MRS. MYRON KING

President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary as it gets its new fall and winter season under way tonight, has been a member of that organization since 1951.

In previous seasons, Marion has served as both program and sunshine chairman; was a member of the board and held office of secretary for one year; has been a member of the Auxiliary-sponsored Golden Age Society board for two years.

Other interests are the Amaranth Circle, membership in Lacy PTA, and Ruth Bible Class. These activities, along with a home at 606 Madison avenue and two young daughters, provide a full day's schedule for the busy new president.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. King attended Allegheny College and taught school for two years in Youngsville.

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

SALLIE WEILER TO BE RUSSELL SPEAKER

Russell—At eight o'clock Wednesday evening in the Methodist church, Sallie Weiler, Warren County Youth Ambassador, will tell of her experiences in Holland for a WSCS-sponsored open meeting. All interested persons are cordially invited.

Because of this special program event, the regular WSCS meeting on Wednesday has been postponed until Thursday. At that time, members will have an all-day bazaar work bee at the home of Mrs. Marvin Kelley, with a tureen luncheon at noon.

IRVINE PTA

All members and interested friends are asked to be in attendance for the first meeting of Irvinedale PTA at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday. Guest speaker William Fuellhart will talk on the Civil Defense program, Mrs. Donald Curtis will be in charge of devotions, and the following new officers will serve refreshments: President, Mrs. Stanley Doeber; vice president, Mrs. Joseph Mathis; secretary, Mrs. Clifford Forsgren; treasurer, Mrs. Norman Farnham.

DIAMOND GRANGE

The regular meeting of Diamond Grange Tuesday evening will be called at 7:30 p. m. instead of the usual eight o'clock, in order that election of officers and other business matters may be taken care of prior to the exemplification of the first and second degrees at 8:30 p. m.

Because of the elections and degree work, there will be no tureen dinner, but refreshments will be served following the meeting.

RUTH RANSOM SOCIETY

Members of Ruth Ransom Society of Grace Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Herbert Samuelson, 635 Conewango avenue, at 6:15 this evening. All are urged to be on hand and each should bring a tureen and table service for the evening meal.

BERNADINE CIRCLE

Mrs. Ruth Anderson, 1907 Pennsylvania avenue, east, will entertain Bernadine Circle of Epworth Methodist church tonight at 8:00 o'clock, and a good attendance is urged.

Warren Players Starting Drive

Those who wish to become members of Warren Players Club are referred to a membership application coupon printed in tonight's Times-Mirror. By clipping the coupon, and either mailing it to Post Office box 563, or by bringing it to the Players' campaign headquarters in Times Square, newcomers may become either active or associate members in the Players Club, which is starting its 27th season of outstanding plays. Cast for the initial production, "Peg O' My Heart", a light hearted comedy, will be announced later this week, according to the directors, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Anderson, and will be presented October 18-19 in the Woman's Club auditorium, with curtain time 8:30. Thursday night, Warren Players will hold a rally, with committee workers waging an all-out door to door campaign for their annual membership drive. The goal is set for a membership of 1500, an increase of 200 members over last year's 1300 memberships to the club. Campaign slogan is "Players, Please!"

IRVINE PTA

Youngsville—The executive committee of Irvine PTA met recently at the home of Mrs. Howard Speas to make preparations for the opening meeting of the PTA at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday at the school house, when there will be musical numbers, followed by a reception for the teachers. Luncheon will be served in the cafeteria by the executive committee after the meeting.

Hoople Defies You To Outpick Him

Egad! Here he is again—Major Hoople, the bombastic football forecaster—with his weekly predictions.

The Major rates very high among the nation's experts, according to his own figures, and he defies all readers to outguess him on the results of the Saturday's grid brawls.

Watch for his forecasts on the Sports Page covering games of Saturday Sept. 22. He not only picks 'em according to chalk, but is King of the Upsets, as he admits himself. It is one of the outstanding gridiron features in the Warren Times-Mirror.

OBITUARIES

FUNERAL INFORMATION WILL BE FOUND UNDER ANOTHER HEADING

ZELLO LEE SHELTON
Resident of Kinzua nearly all his life and owner-manager of the Sheldon Handle Company, Z. L. Sheldon died at the family home at that place at 5:40 a.m. Sunday, following a lingering illness. He was nearly 78 years of age.

Zello Lee Sheldon was born in Ellicottville, N. Y., on October 23, 1878, and came to Kinzua at the age of three years. With the exception of four years, spent in Biernie and Malvern, Ark., he had spent his remaining years in the up-river community, and was a member of the St. Luke's Episcopal church in Kinzua.

Besides his wife, Fannie, he leaves four children, Ivan Sheldon, Lester M. Sheldon, and Donald C. Sheldon, Kinzua; Mrs. Olive Place, Bradford; also six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Grace Yearick and Mrs. Cora Schoonmaker, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mason O. Sheldon, Malvern, Ark.

Friends will be received at the family home, starting at seven o'clock this evening, and services in his memory will be held there at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday. The Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial church of Warren, will officiate and interment will follow in McKean County Memorial Park at Lafayette.

MRS. ANNA M. REED
Mrs. Anna M. Reed, 82, a resident of the Presbyterian Home at Carlisle, and formerly of Tionesta, died at the Oil City Hospital at 7:30 a.m. Sunday.

She was born Jan. 13, 1847, at Irvine, Warren County, a daughter of Peter and Emma Swanson Anderson.

Mrs. Reed was a member of the Tionesta Presbyterian Church. Her husband, Albert Reed, preceded her in death.

She leaves a brother, George T. Anderson, and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Blum, both of Tionesta.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Tionesta. Rev. E. M. McKee of the Tionesta Presbyterian Church will officiate, and interment will be in Mt. Collins Cemetery there.

MARION PAYNE

Services will be held at St. Joseph church, Oil City, Wednesday at 9:00 a.m. for Marion Payne, of Oil City, who died very suddenly at Detroit, Mich., where he was employed on a construction project. Mr. Payne was a brother-in-law of G. B. Young, 605 East street, Warren.

ALBERT V. KOEBLEY

Word has been received in Warren of the death of Albert V. Koebley, age 60, a former resident of Warren now residing in Decatur, Ga. He is survived by his wife, Georgia; a daughter, Mrs. Sumnerlin, of Braxton, Ga.; and a son, Albert, of Beaumont, Texas; also five grandchildren; a brother, Edwin E. Koebley, and a sister Mrs. Lillian Petersen, both of Warren.

MRS. MABELLE LANDIS
Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Friday for Mrs. Mabelle Landis, former resident of 109 North Carver street, who died at the Brannan-Root Nursing Home. The Rev. Frank Kehrl, of First Presbyterian church, officiated and the following served as bearers for interment in Oakland cemetery: Blaine Mead, Nelson Johnson, John Cole, A. R. Peterson, Charles Mathis and Marshall Storum.

Attending the rites from away were Mrs. Thomas Donaldson, New Cumberland, Pa.; Mrs. Harriett Ullery and Miss Harnett Ullery, Greenville.

ALBIN J. WASHBURG

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday for Albin J. Washburg, North Warren, with Rev. Robert C. Knapp, pastor of North Warren Presbyterian church, officiating, and the following serving as bearers for interment in Pine Grove cemetery, Russell: Kenneth Barrett, Ralph Newhall, Russell Dietrich, LeRoy Johnson, Bert Hook and Charles Hamilton.

Those attending from away included: Mr. and Mrs. Dennis R. Sullivan, Tonawanda, N. Y.; Miss Hazel E. Bole, New York, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary Cruise, Mrs. Vera Stone Darling, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bole, Erie; J. A. Washburg, Randolph, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Erickson, Busti; Mrs. Gust Norberg, Sinclairville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William Palm, Chancellers Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Washburg, Mrs. Alvin Carlson, Lakewood, N. Y.; Mrs. John Burgett, Frewsburg, N. Y.; Mrs. Henry Halladay, Mrs. Marjorie Cavel, Mrs. Harold Renaldo, Mrs. Cooley Mitchell, Jamestown, N. Y.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL
The many friends of Laurence Heidiger will be pleased with the news that he is convalescing at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. R. Sentiff, Greiner road, Williamsville, N. Y. While he is still confined to bed, he will be glad to see and hear from his many friends.

GROITTO MEETING

A good turnout is asked for the regular meeting of Farran Grotto at eight o'clock this evening, as members take up their activities for the fall and winter season. Looking ahead in the line of social activities, the date of Saturday, October 27, has been set for a fall social.

WARREN MAN ON DAVE GARROWAY SHOW TODAY

Area viewers tuned in on the Dave Garroway show this morning were surprised and interested to discover Floyd Rice, well known local insurance agent appearing on the Dave Garroway show as a member of a panel discussing "The Pros and Cons of an Eight-hour Day for Women!" Mr. Rice is in New York attending a convention and will be a guest speaker Wednesday morning in a workshop to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria which will discuss Insurance Agency and Management Relations.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

Dr. Lee J. Berger, 18 Central avenue, president of Warren Kiwanis Club, left this morning for Harrisburg to attend the 1956 convention of the Pennsylvania District of Kiwanis International, which is being held September 16 to 19.

TWO EMERGENCIES

Warren General Hospital emergency ward reported but two emergency cases received treatment over the weekend. Friday, Ellengayle Palm, Tidoute, was treated for a laceration of the right foot. Sunday, Bruce Kay, 213 Second street, Youngville, had the end of his third left finger amputated, and he was admitted to the hospital.

WELL DOWN TO 7.316

Titusville Herald: Northwestern Pennsylvania's deepest well was down to 7,316 feet last weekend and still going farther. Drilling on Shaw Farm No. 1, southeast of Tidoute, has been delayed this week while a new cable is being put on. Another delay was a cave-in which required cementing. The bottom is now in the Reedsville shale. The Trenton is expected between 8,000 and 8,100 feet.

ACCOUNTANTS' BANQUET

The National Association of Cost Accountants, Jamestown Chapter, is holding its first dinner meeting of the 1956-57 season at the Moon Brook Country Club on September 18, at 6:30 p.m. The beautiful eighteen hole golf course at Moon Brook will be available to members and guests for an afternoon of golf and all are urged to attend. The guest speaker will be Munro Corbin, Controller of the Rockwell Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh. Mr. Corbin's topic will be "The Value of Timely Operating Statements."

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

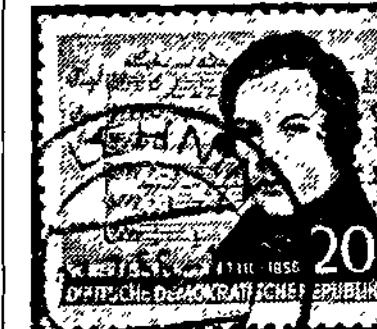

It will interest his many friends to learn that Herbert Carnes has been removed from the Jamestown WCA Hospital to his home, 300 Pleasant Drive, Pleasant Drive, Pleasant township, where he is resting comfortably following an operation. It will be some time before he will be able to have visitors. Both Mr. Carnes and his wife Esther are extremely grateful for the large number of flowers, letters and cards sent to the former on the occasion of his birthday anniversary while in the hospital.

ARCHERY CLUB ELECTS

The annual Warren Archery Club meeting was held at the Warr-Penn picnic ground, where plans for the coming archery season were made and the following officers for the coming season were elected: President, Bob Jackson; vice president, Bob Dixon; secretary and treasurer, Ken Foreman; Cleatus Remmy and Paul Font were also elected as target captains for the coming season. The various shoots attended this season were greatly enjoyed by all members of the Warren Club. Anyone who is interested in archery is requested to contact one of the above members or officers for further information.

James Gordon reached over and shook hands with Mrs. Powell "Thank you for your kindness," she said. "I'm taking my children back to Rosenwald." Mrs. Catherine Copeland also said her children would return to Rosenwald. The Rosenwald school at nearby Providence is for Negroes.

Williams said National Guardsmen would remain "in Clay for the time being."

Williams and Mayor Herman Z. Clark shook hands and smiled after the order was read. "It was very dignified, wasn't it?" the general asked.

"Yes sir, it was," the mayor replied.

A small crowd was on hand when Williams and the Negroes drove up to the school.

was feared cutting torches would be needed to remove Drake's body from the wrecked car.

The crash, which occurred slightly over a mile west of the city, tied up all traffic on the road for about an hour. Firemen used their portable lighting unit to provide illumination at the scene while the car was torn loose from the pole. They kept booster lines ready in case a spark might ignite gasoline from the car.

The broken pole was carried several feet from its location and the top position hung suspended by the lines. Several of the wires were cut down by the impact and firemen and police had to constantly keep the huge crowd of onlookers away from the possible danger.

State Police said the portable lighting unit, set up by Stanford Hoss Company members, saved the day as far as clearing the wreckage and removing the body was concerned.

Several stories about 100-mile per-hour speeds in the wrecked car were circulated but investigating officers said none were verified by facts although it is certain the car was traveling at a high rate of speed when it slammed against the pole.

Residents of nearby houses heard the screaming of brakes and then the air-rendering crash. They called State Police here immediately. When the officers arrived on the scene they ascertained that Drake was dead and that there were no other passengers in the car.

The body remained inside the crushed vehicle until Deputy Coroner Robert Bracken arrived on the scene with an ambulance. The death occurred in Warren County and is technically within the jurisdiction of Coroner Ed Lowrey of Warren. Bracken said he turned his information over to representatives of Lowrey's office for investigation.

Troopers said Drake was traveling toward Spring Creek at the time of the crash. A short distance beyond the scene of the wreck there is a narrow iron bridge crossing Brokenstraw Creek. Since Drake was familiar with the road and certainly knew he was approaching the bridge where a slower speed is required, the theory was advanced that he might have put on his brakes and had the wheels lock. Fighting to release the brakes might have caused him to lose control and hit the pole.

His mother, Mrs. Stanley Royek of 108 Railroad street, learned of his death while sitting in a car several hundred feet from the scene of the accident. Autos driven by curious sightseers lined the highway almost to the Colza garage intersection, nearly a mile from the wreck.

Mrs. Royek and her husband had driven out along the highway after the fire horn sounded, curious to learn the location of what they thought to be a fire. Arriving on the scene and learning there had been a fatal accident, they remained in their car.

After a few minutes, when Drake's body had been extricated and his identity ascertained, Mrs. Royek heard her son named as the victim as the onlookers began leaving the scene and walked along the road to their cars. Her husband tried to calm her as she lapsed into a state of near hysteria.

The victim was born in Clymer on December 4, 1935. He lived with his parents in Cleveland, Wattsburg and Panama before moving to Corry in 1947.

He was a 1953 graduate of Corry High School and since his graduation had been employed by Buick Motor Sales in Corry and Erie.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Royek; one sister, Marie Drake, at home; one brother, Pvt. Marshall Drake, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Jay Drake, who died in 1945 in an automobile accident of a very similar nature.

Troopers also continued their investigation into a mishap occurring 1:45 p.m. Friday when a northbound vehicle operated by James Vogan, 43, of Oil City smeared a car on the curve just this side of Russell.

In the community two weekend mishaps were reported.

Late Saturday afternoon Chester H. Jones, Jr., 72, of Everett, Mass. ran a stop light at the corner of Market and Fifth Street. First he struck a car crossing on Fifth. Operator was Frank C. Russo, 40, 12 Morrison Street. This threw that machine into the path of an oncoming machine piloted by R. R. Bimler, 63, 204 Monroe Street.

At 7:10 p.m. Friday, Russell F. Sheets, 52, of 122 Central Avenue, was proceeding around the corner from Liberty to Second Street. Yards C. Troutman, 36, of RD 1, Warren, was stopped for a parking car and it happened.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

It is much better to write a personal note of condolence than to buy a "sympathy" card and put your name on it. Letters of condolence are difficult to write, but they are an expression of sympathy that should not be put off or overlooked.

If you are sorry about a friend's loss surely you can take the time to say so in your own words.

Two From County to Compete in 4-H Club Junior Dairy Show

Naming of grand champions and reserve champions for each of the five leading dairy breeds will feature the first annual Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show in the Farm Show building at Harrisburg, September 20, according to assistant county agent Bernard Wingert.

Only blue ribbon winners from the district 4-H and FFA dairy shows will be allowed to compete for judging in the championship classes. Warren County will be represented by: Amy and Nancy Curtis, Columbus and Kenneth Downey, Corry.

In addition to blue ribbon and championship awards at the show the 4-H boys and girls will participate in fitting and showmanship contests for special prizes. National breed associations will make awards for the most outstanding animals entered in their respective breeds.

The show in Harrisburg has been made possible through a legislative appropriation of $10,000 to the Department of Agriculture by the 1955 General Assembly, approved by Governor George M. Leader.

All blue ribbon winners will be entered automatically in the 1957 Farm Show next January.

Nearly 400 head of Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Holstein and Jersey cattle will be shown. Wingert said, with competition in separate 4-H and FFA classes. The Warren County blue ribbon winners were selected at a District 4-H Show held at Meadville on September 8.

Honore Mann, extension dairy specialist at the Pennsylvania State University, will direct the first Junior Dairy show, assisted by H. E. Newcomer, vocational agriculture area supervisor.

Animals in the Show must arrive at the Farm Show Building before 5:00 p.m. September 18, with judging scheduled to start at 8:00 a.m. September 20.

Eagles Outfight Brookville, 19-14, in Saturday Game

Coming from behind, the Youngville High School eleven held Lawrence Park scoreless in the second half Saturday to chalk up their first win of this year, 19-14.

Don Dinniny was the threat all afternoon for Youngville as he passed to Johnnie McCanna for one TD and bucked over himself for the game clincher in the fourth half, fought his way to the first Eagle score when he sliced over for two in the second quarter.

The Youngville squad was behind 14-6 at the first half before a peppy intermission spurred them over to score twice in the closing periods.

First game Youngville lost 25-12 to Brookville when they were held scoreless during a second half. Next week Northern Area will host the Eagles.

Barbershoppers To Be Heard in Two Concerts

The Warren Barbershop Chorus has two big engagements on schedule this week. Tomorrow evening they will meet at the foot of Market street to board a bus for Knox, where they will present a concert for the Clarion County Club of the Coudersport Consistory. The program to be staged in the new Knox High School auditorium will include quartet and chorus numbers during which the Chord Cadets and the Four Chiefs of Warren and the Symphonic Four of Jamestown will be presented.

Thursday evening a similar entertainment will be presented in the Belles Lettres Club, at Oil City, for the Venango County Club of the Consistory. In addition to the chorus the Four Chiefs and Chord Cadets, George Johnson, popular piano-humorist will perform.

Both trips will be made in chartered buses, leaving at the foot of Market street.

Dragons Beat Knights 13 to 0 for First Win of Season

Close and Exciting Contest Played Before a Large Crowd in a Cold and Drenching Rain

Backed by hard plunging Connie Hultman, the Warren Dragons grabbed their first victory of the 1956 grid season over the Franklin Knights Saturday afternoon at War Memorial Field before a large turnout of fans by a 13-0 score. Bad weather, which has become typical of this area prevailed throughout the contest forcing the greater part of the game to be played in a cold driving rain.

The Blue and White seemed to be fully recovered from the setback landed them by the Corry Beavers on the previous week and took revenge on the ill-fated Knights by more than doubling the visitors' total yardage and only falling one short of racking up three times their total number of first downs. Only twice in the entire contest were the dragons forced to call on Connie Hultman to boot the ball out of a precarious situation.

The home team took the entire first quarter to pull itself together and could well have lost the contest by fumbles, but the Knights could not capitalize on the breaks. The visitors took the opening kickoff and a spread formation which had the Dragons fooled for a couple of plays. After the Knights fumbled, up one first down by way of Don Snyder's 15-yard end run, the home team diagnosed this formation and forced Ted Valeski to punt from his own 36.

Bob Hartnett grabbed the kick in his own 30 and drove to the 45 before being pulled down. Hultman was then called to hit the line with a succession to compile 17 yards and a first down. With the ball spotted on Franklin's 38, Hultman went off right tackle for 7 yards. Suppa then took a reverse from Berdine and skirted his left end for 6 more and a first down with the oval placed on Franklin's 25. Hultman hit right tackle or 4, then a bad center pass caused the big Warren halfback to tumble, Franklin recovering.

With the ball spotted on his own 8, Don Snyder hit the Dragon line in three different places but fell short of a first down by one yard, bus forcing the Knights to boot. The ball was downed on Warren's 7. Hultman skirted his left end or a first down. McKelvey hit the line once and Hultman drove through twice to gain 13 yards the day by coming up with the bounding oval.

In four plays, however, the Knights were again forced to punt by the rushing Dragon line, and the home team took over on Franklin's 39. After McKelvey drove for 8 yards, a left-handed pass which scored Warren's TD in the Corry contest from Hartnett to John Fowley was out of the Warren end's reach and fell incomplete. Mascaró then hit the right tackle slot for three and a first down. Mascaró, McKelvey, and Suppa then combined end runs to score another first. With the ball on the 18, Jack Suppa skirted left end for 4. The ball was then given to Hultman who went off right tackle and plunged for 14 yards, sliding over the goal line for touchdown, thus redeeming himself for the earlier fumble. Berdine's attempt for the extra point was no good so the score stood at Warren 6, Franklin 0.

Berdine's kickoff was taken on the 10 by Don Snyder, who went 12 yards before being hauled down. The Dragons then held and gave up only 3 yards, forcing Snyder to kick. The kick was blocked and Hank Lanman grabbed it on the Knights' 16. Haslet, Warren's sophomore tailback, ran left end to grab 11 yards. After Mascaró and Haslet were thrown for a combined 6-yard loss, Hartnett took a handoff from Mascaró and drove over for the TD. Berdine's conversion attempt split the posts and the score was now Warren 13, Franklin 0.

Coach Bell gave his reserves a chance to get a bit of experience under their belts during the second half, and, from their showing, the prospects for the future are looking bright. A fine display of backfield maneuvering was given by Bob Haslet, who received fine support from his other teammates.

Next week the Dragons will be on the road and meet the Titusville Rockets on their home field. The Rockets will be out to avenge last season's 43-13 drubbing handed them by Warren's 'E' and White.

Dodgers Again at Top of the Heap With Working Margin of Half a Game Over the Braves

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

Just two weeks ago, the Brooklyn Dodgers appeared to be finished. They had dropped a double-header to the last-place New York Giants, their hitters were floundering and their pitchers were unsteady.

They were 3½ games behind the first-place Milwaukee Braves. The picture couldn't have been blacker.

That was 14 days ago, and to Manager Walt Aulton it probably seems like 14 years.

Today, the Brooks are at the top of the heap in the tight National League race. They have a working margin of half-a-game over the Braves, are one game up in the vital lost column, and play most of their remaining games in Ebbets Field.

While the Braves certainly cannot be accused of wilting under pressure, there are these facts to be considered:

1. They have lost 8 of their last 12 games.
2. They are at .500 in their last 10 games.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

IF YOUR DOG IS KENNELED OUTSIDE, DON'T LET HIM BECOME A COMMUNITY NUISANCE BY CONTINUOUS BARKING. SHOUTING AT THE DOG USUALLY JUST ADDS TO THE BARKING. TRY THIS POSSIBLE CURE! EVERY TIME HE STARTS BARKING (UNLESS PROVOKED BY INTRUDERS OR PROWLERS), HOLD THE DOG BY HIS COLLAR WHILE YOU THRASH HIM WITH A ROLLED NEWSPAPER. THIS WON'T HURT A DOG, IT ONLY SOUNDS LIKE IT TO HIM, AND HE'LL SOON LEARN!

Ward Again Cops National Amateur Golf Tournament

Lake Forest, Ill. (AP)—It was the general opinion all last week at the Knollwood club that Harvie Ward just couldn't mis. He didn't.

The only thing the 30-year-old San Francisco auto salesman lost was eight pounds in weight, dropping to 151, as he ground down his rivals and finally defeated veteran Chuck Kocsis 5 and 4 in Saturday's finale to the National Amateur golf tournament.

Ward became the first amateur in 21 years to take the national championship twice in a row. Lawson Little did it in 1934 and 1935.

Ward already has set as his goal the 1957 championship when the tournament is held at Brookline near Boston, a course he never has played.

A 1953 graduate of Warren High, Lyle entered the Army in 1955.

Browns Drop Fifth Straight Warm-Up Without a Victory

By The Associated Press

It's getting about time for Otto Graham to come out of retirement again.

There has been no indication that Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns will ask his star quarterback of many years to change his mind about quitting football for good. But the way the National Football League champions have been going in exhibition games, Brown apparently is going to have to do something and quick. The championship season opens Sept. 30.

When the Browns dropped a 31-14 decision to the Detroit Lions Saturday night it marked the fifth exhibition defeat without a victory for the champs.

The Chicago Bears remained the only unbeaten club, turning back the New York Giants 3-2, 21-16 for their fifth straight triumph. Pittsburgh Steelers 1-3 edged the Philadelphia Eagles 1-5, 14-12. Green Bay 4-1 continued to show championship form with a 29-21 victory over the Chicago Cards 1-4 and Baltimore 2-3 took the measure of the Washington Redskins 3-2 21-13.

Over $1,000 for Dystrophy Fund

Local goodhearts phoned in a total of more than $1,000 from 10 p. m. Saturday to 4 p. m. Sunday during the Channel 2 Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy. Charles Ferris, manager of Caprino's, leaning on this end of desk, reported today that persons had phoned in to the Caprino switchboard $1,045.29 worth of contributions and more was expected from latecomers. At the phone is Ed Barney, secretary of Starbrick Volunteer Fire Department. Listing the contributions beside him is Donald Thompson of the Warren firemen. Standing at far side of desk is Raymond R. Yeagle, secretary of Local 1093, International Association of Fire Fighters, which helped co-sponsor the local effort with County Fire Departments for the fight against MD. Texas Lunch kept the workers stoked with fuel on their 18-hour stint and 46 Taxi brought in contributors, both for free.

Clark Hammers Away at Duff's Voting Record

Oil City (AP)—Joseph S. Clark Jr., Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Sen. James Duff (R-Pa), today continued hammering at his opponent's voting and attendance records.
In speeches prepared for delivery here and in nearby Franklin, Clark asserted that Duff had voted against measures that would have helped Pennsylvania and "spent six years in the Senate without sponsoring one major bill of importance to Pennsylvania."
The former Philadelphia mayor opened a week-long campaign through the west and south-central parts of the state with a pledge that, if elected, he would "work toward the best interests of all groups in Pennsylvania—not just a few," as he said Duff had done.

SWEDEN'S VOTERS GIVE SOCIALIST REGIME SCARE
Stockholm, Sweden (AP)—Sweden's voters have given their Socialist government a mild slap on the wrist but continued it in office with a comfortable 25-seat majority in Parliament.
Complete, unofficial returns from yesterday's elections kept the Social Democrats and their Agrarian partners in a commanding position despite an impressive upsurge for the Conservative party.
The results indicated a demand from a significant segment of the public for lower taxes, better housing and action to stem inflation. The Conservatives, who campaigned on these issues, increased their representation in the Riksdag from 31 seats to 39.

FLIP OF A COIN MAY DECIDE CHAMPIONSHIP
Whether the Warren County Democratic co-chairmanship will be resolved with a flip of a coin will be determined at 8 p. m. Tuesday in Pittsfield Community House. After a meeting with Democratic State Chairman Joe Barr in Harrisburg last week, Robert Clark of Youngsville, currently a county co-chairman, was told that if he so desired the co-chairmanship question could be settled with a coin flip. Clark has called a meeting of his Democrats for Democratic Action to find their opinions of the subject. Other county co-chairman is Chester Walker.

Lag in Enlistments May Cause an Early Draft For Reserves

Washington (AP)—A sharp lag in voluntary enlistments may make it necessary to draft men for military reserve duty, an advisory group reports.
Congress once rejected the draft idea, but the National Security Training Commission said voluntary enlistments during the first year have provided only 40,000 of the 100,000 men sought for the program.
Under it, youths below the 18 1/2-year draft age limit are encouraged to volunteer for six months of active duty training, to be followed by 7 1/2 years in the active reserve. The volunteers become exempt from the 24-month service requirement of regular draftees, who also must continue service in the reserves.
Unless the rate of volunteering can be doubled or tripled soon, the commission said in a report to Congress, "we should fundamentally revise the program and take steps to provide the necessary manpower."

The parley has been called to consider Dulles' plan for organizing a Suez Canal users' association. Under the scheme, announced by Britain's Prime Minister Eden last week, the association would use its own pilots to guide ships through the waterway, collect fees and share the revenue with Egypt.
If Nasser refuses to permit the ships to go through under this plan, the stage would be set for a test in the United Nations of the Egyptian leader's claim his government is keeping the canal open to world navigation.

SAFE STORAGE

Boston (AP)—Six hundred dollars reported lost by a California couple apparently did not stray very far. Boston police got a call from Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Bowen of Pasadena, Calif. They were at Hartford, Conn., and said they lost the money while in Boston. A few hours later, police reported, the Bowens called again, this time from Norwalk, Conn., to say the money was found in one of Mrs. Bowen's shoes.

ROSARY RALLY

Johnstown (AP)—Thousands of persons from the Johnstown area participated in a Rosary Rally yesterday at the Point Stadium. The rally was the fifth of an annual series sponsored by the Altoona Roman Catholic diocese. The Rev. Lewis J. Mulvihill, chaplain of the Johnstown council of the Knights of Columbus, was master of ceremonies.

Wolverines Drop One 13-6, to the Northern Knights

Sheffield High Wolverines found themselves overpowered Saturday as Coach Norge Luvinson's Northern Area Knights pushed over two touchdowns for a 13-0 win.
Righthalf back Rowland was the big winning factor for the Knights as he nestled a pass from Olson in the second quarter and bucked across center for the next six. He also ran for the second extra point.
Swarming out of a T-formation, the Sheffield Wolverines couldn't seem to muster the scoring punch despite sustained drives which picked up a lot of yardage.
First game this season, the Wolverines bowled over the Warren Dragon Reserves, 36-18. Next week they charge against the St. Mary's eleven at St. Marys.
The Knights will oppose Youngsville on the Knight's home territory next Saturday.

YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville—Local school pupils, along with others all over the state, participated in the Civil Defense test conducted last Wednesday.
Charles Bennett, former driver-training teacher in Youngsville, has accepted a similar position in Fredonia and Forestville.
Rachel Barnes, R. N., employed at Rouse Hospital, visited her home in Barnes for a couple of days.
Mr. and Mrs. William Fisk, former residents of Ford street now living in Springwater, N. Y., have been guests of Mrs. Adella Storch. The latter was an Erie visitor on Wednesday.
Erwin A. Storch, who has spent the summer with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Delahooke, and their sons, likes their locale so well he will remain there for the coming school year.
Violet Circle was entertained by Mrs. Wave Carlson for its afternoon meeting, Mrs. E. C. Stillings giving an interesting talk about the classes of people in Mexico and other highlights of their year's travels in the west and southwest. Mrs. Vivian Smith and daughter were honored guests. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Emma Pentecost on World Day of Prayer, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

HOT COFFEE

Lakeland, Fla. (AP)—Major injuries received by Mrs. Lucille Martin in an automobile accident here burns from hot coffee.

She was sitting in her car at a drive-in restaurant drinking a cup of coffee when the brakes gave way on a truck parked nearby and it rolled into the side of her automobile.

Pioneer Worker in The Oil Fields Is Laid To Rest Today

When a requiem high mass was celebrated at 9:00 a. m. today in St. Walburga's church in Titusville, final was written to the life story of a man who has been a well-known fixture of area oil fields for a good many years.

He was Louis F. Stahl, born in Warren in 1866 and an oil well shooter for 48 years. Employed by the Cupler Torpedo Company prior to his retirement 26 years ago, he recalled in earlier newspaper interviews that he had hauled a total of 90,000 quarts of Nitroglycerine in his nearly half a century as a shooter and had experienced many close brushes with death in his profession. Mr. Stahl was always firmly convinced, however, that his "time hadn't come yet."

The following from the Titusville Herald concerning his hazardous profession will be read with interest by many old timers and others to whom earlier oil field days are just a topic they hear about.

Long after trucks came into popular use, Mr. Stahl remained faithful to his horse-drawn wagon. One of the wagons built for the Cupler Co. in the 1890's and driven by him is now on display at the Drake Well Memorial Park.

Often, the shooter carried more than 700 quarts of nitroglycerine on a single trip. His small dog always accompanied him on his run from Clarion to Titusville.

He said he hauled enough nitro to "blow Oil Creek Valley sky high," in a 1933 interview with The Herald.

Mr. Stahl related one story about a close call he had near Pittsfield. Just about daybreak, he fell asleep on the wagon. As it was approaching a railroad crossing his face was brushed by tree
